

A CURIOSITY

Postal Card Goes From Paris, France, to Bowling Green, Ky., Without Name.

The Park City Times, Bowling Green, Ky., last week said: "A curiosity reached Bowling Green today in the shape of a French postal card, mailed in Paris, and sent to Miss Hallie Kramie Rives, the Kentucky authoress, now a resident of New York. What makes the card a curiosity is the fact that its face does not bear Miss Rives' name, but was delivered by means of her portrait painted on it by a French artist. Below the picture is the word 'New York.' So well known is this Kentucky girl in the northern metropolis that the post-office authorities recognized the picture and sent the card to Miss Rives. The authoress sent the card as a letter to a friend now residing in Bowling Green.

Back of this unique postal card a little story. Miss Rives new novel, "Hearts Courageous," which is now making a furor in the North has a plot which turns upon the coming of the French fleet to the aid of the Americans during the war for Independence. When the Countess de Rochembeau, a few weeks ago visited this country in connection with the unveiling of the Rochembeau monument in Washington, she read this novel and sent for Miss Rives to visit her apartment at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York. A friendship sprang up between them and when the Countess sailed for home she carried an autographed copy of "Hearts Courageous" to the President of the French Republic.

The story was written widely in the French newspapers upon the Countess' return. The "Figaro" published Miss Rives' portrait as the author of "Hearts Courageous" but did not give her name. The Figaro's picture met the eye of the French painter, Leon Moncapeau, who wished to secure the novel from America but knew not whom to address as its author. Hence the postal card written by him in French, whose only address is Miss Rives painted picture. The translation of the card reads:

"I hope that my portrait of you copied after that in the Figaro, will serve as address in America, where without doubt, your face will be recognized immediately by the gentlemen of the postal bureau."

Miss Rives was so struck by the ingenuity of her French correspondent that she sent him a copy of "Hearts Courageous."

Forty Years a Pastor.

The West Lexington Presbyterian, which met at Versailles the 16th instant, held special services in the Presbyterian church commemorating the fortieth anniversary of the pastorate of the Rev. G. H. Rout, D. D., of this city is one of the ablest and most beloved men of his church in Kentucky. A number of addresses were made. The Hon. W. G. Davis, of Versailles spoke of "The Pastor as a Citizen;" the Rev. W. B. Taylor of the "Pastor as a Co-Laborer;" Mr. Matthew Van Lear, of "The Pastor as a Presbyter;" the Rev. E. O. Guerrant, of "The Pastor Among His People;" and Mr. D. B. Price, of the Versailles Presbyterian church, of "Our Pastor."

Few men hold a pastorate and do successful work for forty years, and when they do be sure they are in earnest to their call and are continually working at the Master's business.

WIRE DANCING.

Extraordinary Equilibrium by a Spanish Troupe.

Wire-walking and rope-dancing are among the very oldest of physical displays of nerve and skill. A circus program without one or more exhibitions of wire walking would be a strange affair. Although wire walking cannot be made a feature of a first class show, it can be, if extremely well done, quite interesting as a number on the programme. For that reason the management of the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous Shows United, in pursuit of their policy of presenting nothing that is not the very best of its kind, have secured the very greatest troupe of foreign wire-walkers, the Four Carmens, comprising three gentlemen and one lady. They all use a single strand of wire as a roadway upon which the perform all sorts of difficult tricks, such as passing each other, jumping over one another, dancing, cawking and many other difficult feats of equilibrium. As wire walkers they will be an astounding revelation of the possibilities of balancing accomplishment. They are far and away the greatest wire-walkers of the civilized world. Monkeys might possibly equal them in keeping a balance, but certainly no human beings can. They will be here when these shows exhibit Friday, Sept. 26.

Going to Texas.

Rev. John H. Boyet, who so faithfully and ably assisted the Pastor of the Baptist church W. J. Bolin, in a meeting here some years ago, writes the following letter from his home in Mayville, Ky., to the Baptist Argus:

"As stated in your columns last week, I have been called to Sulphur Springs, Texas, and have accepted. This is the second time in life I have been called to a former pastorate. After a pastorate of six years at Honey Grove, Tex., and after an absence of six years, I was called there again. I shall never forget the ovation I received there on my visit last summer. I was pastor at Sulphur Springs nearly five years and have been absent from them fifteen years. They have a splendid church building, and also a good parsonage which was built while I was their pastor before, though it has been much enlarged and improved.

At Wolfe City, near where I preached six years ago to a great many country churches, and where many of my earliest friends and helpers now live, their old love for me, which has never faded, constrains them to once more back to the State, and it means a beautiful little farm where I hope to spend my last years among them, and then sleep among their dead.

On Oct. 1st I will say goodbye to old Kentucky, whose preachers and people I love so well.

Murderer Captured and Burned.

Near San Bernardino, Cal. "General" Bruce, a notorious Indian outlaw, who several months ago murdered Victoria Maria, a young squaw, by choking her to insensibility and then burying her alive, was captured by the Indians in Southern Nevada. A rope was fastened by slip nooses around his neck and with the other end tied to the horn of a saddle. The murderer was then dragged for a mile across the rock strewn desert. The body, which was horribly lacerated, was then thrown on a huge pile of wood and burned.

Gompers predicts that the anarcho strikers will win.

NORTH AND SOUTH

In the Presbyterian Church Will Meet in Lexington.

The most important meeting of Presbyterians ever held in Kentucky will be held in Lexington on Tuesday Oct. 14, the meeting being the centennial anniversary of the establishment of the Presbyterian church in Kentucky. It will be a joint synodical meeting of the Northern and Southern Synods of this State. This will be the first time they have convened in a joint meeting since before the civil War, the church having suffered a schism on the slavery question at that period.

The centennial of the church's establishment will be observed. The synod was formed by the actions of the General Assembly of 1802. It embraced all the churches lying west of the boundary between Virginia and Kentucky. Across the Ohio river it covered all the territory west of Columbus and the Scioto river. These boundaries continued for twelve or fifteen years. In 1814 the synod of Ohio was constituted with the Ohio river as its southern boundary, and 1817 the synod of Tennessee was established to include the territory from the Kentucky line to the Gulf of Mexico.

A Distinctly New Feature.

Always to the fore, the K. T. H. B. Association this year announces an innovation that is attracting the attention and support of practically every prominent amateur reinsman in the country. Five cup races have been provided for amateur drivers and already such men as C. K. G. Billings, E. E. Snathers, H. K. Devereaux, F. G. Jones, C. F. Emery, C. A. Otis, etc., have assured Secretary Franklin that they will contest. The driving clubs represented include New York, Cleveland, Chicago, Toledo, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Boston, Syracuse, etc. These events for handsome trophies frequently attract as great a class of equine wonders as do the best known trotting classics, and produce in many cases most splendid contests. Heretofore such contests have been limited to clubs, but, as usual, this Association takes the initiative, and offers five such races for decision during its ten days' meeting, Oct. 7th to 17th.

Easy Feeling On the Isthmus.

Among American citizens on the Isthmus there is now a feeling of relief, as there is now a United States warship at each end of the Panama railroad line. There are no indications of an immediate attack by the revolutionists.

In a personal interview with H. G. Prescott, general superintendent of the Panama railroad, regarding the application of Friday's decree to the natives employed by that corporation, he said that his company is doing everything possible to protect them and its own property in accordance with the treaty of 1846, embodying the contract with the Colombian Government.

Forced to Accept Rates.

The local fire insurance agents, of Bowling Green, representing about sixty companies, have finally been forced to accept the rates made for Bowling Green by the Kentucky and Tennessee Board of Fire Underwriters. They made strenuous protests and sent committees to confer with the association, but to no avail. As a result the local agents held a meeting and agreed to the rates in the schedule. In some cases the rate is raised 100 per cent, and in most instances the rates have been greatly increased.

WHEAT AND CORN GOOD

Says Secretary Wilson After An Extended Tour.

Secretary Wilson, who returned Wednesday night from a trip through the West, summarized the agricultural conditions in the States he visited. These States included Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. He said there was a great abundance of crops generally.

"There will be a good corn crop," he said. "Corn now is substantially out of the way of the frost."

"The corn crops in parts of Kansas, Nebraska and Indiana are probably the finest on record. While it may not be a record breaker, the quality of the corn is splendid, and with the exception Southern States, the yield per acre very heavy."

"The wheat crop of the West this year is also very fine, and the grass crop is exceedingly good. This information, taken together with the fine crop of grass, insures lower prices of meat."

Dread Secret Too Much.

A dispatch from Boston says: Lieutenant John R. Morris, U. S. N., was found dead in his state-room on the United States ship Olympia by a fellow officer Monday. He had committed suicide by shooting with a revolver. It has always been believed among his many friends with whom he had talked about the sinking of the Maine that he had information concerning the cause which has never been made public. It is believed he knew just how faulty it was that caused the explosion, and that one was a fellow officer on the Maine.

What it Cost.

At the end of the eighteenth week of the coal strike the estimated losses are as follows: Loss to operators in price of coal, $43,200,000; loss to strikers in wages, $24,000,000; loss to employees other than strikers, $5,300,000; loss to railroads in earning, $10,000,000; loss to business men in the region, $13,500,000; loss to business men outside region, $8,200,000; cost of maintaining coal and iron police, $1,000,000; cost of maintaining non-union workers, $15,000; cost of keeping troops in field, $275,000; damage to mines and machinery, $6,500,000; total, $112,020,000.

Horsemen Protest.

Several horsemen interested in race horses registered a "kick" against the promoters of the State Fair. They stated that in making a list of premiums the thoroughbred interest, one of the largest in the State, has been overlooked, and that when the taxpayers are counting up $15,000 annually for a State fair, thoroughbreds ought to have a showing.

New Corporation.

The Coquillard Wagon Works, of Henderson, with a capital stock of $100,000 have filed articles of incorporation. The incorporators are J. C. Rankin, J. P. Barrett, R. S. Soaper and others. The Yeager Farm, Oil and Gas Company, of Barbourville, also filed articles of incorporation, with a capital stock of $10,000.

Himself a Platform.

Former Gov. Horace Boies was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Third Iowa district to oppose Speaker Henderson. He was declared to be a platform in himself and no resolutions were adopted.

A BABY ACT.

Politicians Blame Shaw for All Of the Trouble.

Surface indications point to a prospective interruption of the cordial relations existing between the president and Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, of Iowa.

The declination of Speaker Henderson to accept a renomination for Congress is responsible for the feeling that is said to exist. Shaw had been cognizant of Speaker Henderson's intentions for some time and yet failed to place the president in possession of the information. Had he done so, the president might have prevailed upon the speaker to reconsider his determination. The president is angry. He referred to Henderson's act as a baby act. Today the president's indignation is due to the belief that Henderson has placed the Republican party in a wrong light throughout the country because of the alleged reason for the step. Some of the president's friends are inclined to the belief that Shaw is playing deep in politics and that he purposely withheld the information.

New Use for Refined Paraffine Wax.

A new and important use for refined paraffine wax seems to have been discovered by a prominent resident of Ohio, living near Lancaster, who had two trees badly damaged by storm, one being a maple and the other an apple. In each case a large limb was broken down from the trunk, but still attached to it. The limbs were propped up and fastened securely with straps, very much as a broken leg might be fastened with splints, and then melted or refined wax poured into and all over the cracks. The "surgical operation" was entirely successful. The Paraffine prevented the escape of the sap, kept out the rain and moisture which would have rotted the trees, prevented the depredations of insects, and the limbs seem thus far to be perfectly re-attached to the trees.

Free Speech and the Right to Slander Property Discussed By Judge O'Rear.

Judge O'Rear of the Court of Appeals today in a lengthy opinion declined to dissolve the injunction granted in Pike Circuit Court to the Northern Coal and Coke Co. vs. C. S. Nield and others. The company owned or had contracts for the purchase of several thousand acres of coal lands in Pike, Letcher and other counties, and in the motion for injunction charged Nield and others with attempting to buy the same lands from the original owners, thus tending to discredit the company's titles to the different tracts. Judge O'Rear says:

"Men will not be permitted under the guise of free speech to falsify, represent another's property so as to impair its value, and to acquire it against the consent and right of the owner."

The clerk of the Pike Circuit Court is directed to file this order with the record of this case and spread it on the memorandum book of that court.

No Blacks Admitted.

The Republican Executive Committee of Alabama will meet at Birmingham refused admittance to negro delegates. This means that henceforth the Republican party in Alabama is to be a white man's party. The elimination of the negro was accomplished through passage of a resolution on a vote of 17 to 10.

BOND FORFEITED.

H. C. Robinson, Indicted for Perjury in the Howard Case, Did Not Appear in Court.

In the Franklin Circuit Court the case of the Commonwealth vs. H. C. Robinson was called. The defendant did not answer and his bond of $500, with I. N. McDaniel as surety, was declared forfeited.

H. C. Robinson, known as Saint Robinson, was Jim Howard's chief alibi witness. He testified that he saw Howard at the Board Trade Hotel when Goebel was shot. The commonwealth indicted him for perjury as the result of his testimony and contradictions by State witnesses, who said Robinson had told them another story.

Robinson went to Frankfort three weeks ago under the impression that the special term of court then opened was the regular term, but has not been seen since.

Alexander R. Shephard, former Governor of the District of Columbia during the existence of the territorial government, died Friday in Mexico. He was given the credit at one time of nipping in the bud a scheme to remove the national capital to one of the Western States.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

A Graded School for Menifee.

The citizens of Tar Ridge, aided by the American Missionary Association of Congregational Churches are planning to carry on a graded school work in Menifee county. Already a small sum has been subscribed toward the new building and all our citizens will be called upon to help in this worthy enterprise. We hope the citizens of Menifee county will awake to their interest and go to work in earnest. The American Missionary Association spend thousands of dollars every year in building schools and churches in our great south land. The Secretaries of this society place this money, where, in their judgment it will do the most good. It will be a great blessing to Menifee if this work is carried on, which of course will rest upon the efforts our citizens put forth.

Mr. T. P. Collinsworth, the solicitor for this school building will call on all friends in due time. Be ready to contribute liberally.

Court Day—Wolfe County.

The Advocate.

This has been a gala day for the Democrats of old Wolfe. Hon. Frank A. Hopkins, the Democratic candidate for Congress for this, the Tenth District, made a rousing Democratic speech here today to an enthusiastic audience of about 1000 people. His speech was well taken and frequently applauded. He thoroughly dejected the platform of his opponent and held up to ridicule the fallacious policies and hypocritical pretenses of the Republican leaders.

Mr. White, the Republican candidate was invited to be present, and divide time with Mr. Hopkins, but for obvious reasons, failed to show up, but his "still hunt" and "gumshoe" tactics were shown up in high order. Mr. Hopkins made a great speech which fired the Democratic heart, and Wolfe county can safely be counted on for 400 majority for Hopkins.

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

On a Trip to Wolfe County Circuit Court—Men, Their Offenses and the Penalties.

The writer left home on Monday afternoon to attend the Wolfe Circuit Court. At Torrington, we took passage in a barouche. The roads were in fine condition. Our driver, apparently about twelve years old, said he was sixteen, and was the mail carrier. He evidently took us for a United States mail inspector, for he asked us if we opened the mail bags. Opening mail bags is a dangerous business, so we did not joke with him about that. You might have thought we were behind fiery steeds. If, when one of the horses stumbled, you had heard him say: "di up 'ere, ou ole debil!" We made the trip, ten miles, in two hours and thirty five minutes, schedule time. As our driver was tongue-tied, we sympathized with him and asked few questions. While in town we were at the Combs House.

Hon. Frank Hopkins was there, having made a speech in the afternoon. The attendance on a first day of Circuit Court was large. Beside Mr. Hopkins there were several Legislative candidates present.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Redwine presided and A. F. Byrd represented the Commonwealth. The juries of Wolfe county do not hesitate to enforce the law, and were it not for the exceeding sinfulness of sin one would think that lawlessness in Wolfe would rapidly decrease, and that men respecting the rights of their fellow men would live in peace, good-will and love, as they ought to.

We present most of the doings of the court for the first two days.

FINES IMPOSED.

CAMPION.

The firm of Vaughn & Congleton are closing out their stock of general merchandise. Mr. Vaughn is engaged in farming in Fayette county. Mr. Congleton is the county judge and has other business engagements.

On Sunday, Sept. 14, near Torrington, James Moore, aged 95, made the closing speech at Baptist Association. He spoke fervently for about twenty-five minutes.

Allison Rose, of Lee City, will with his family remove to Arcovia, Ill., in October.

James Hollan, son of J. B. Hollan, has entered Centre College, but was at home on Tuesday as a witness in court.

The Democratic primary to select a candidate for circuit court clerk will be held on Oct. 18. The

We regret that men so far low control of themselves that they violate laws and commit crimes, but when they do, something must be done with a hope of saving them from a life of crime. This is one of the motives that prompts to the infliction of penalties.

How peaceful, prosperous and perpetual would be this country if men would only obey the laws of God.

We stayed at Campton till Wednesday at 2 o'clock. During that time we saw only one man who appeared to be under the influence of whiskey. He may have smelled a bottle or he may have drunk a pint. Some men are easily effected by intoxicants.

At Torrington we took delayed train and went to Jackson. After supper we strolled in the moonlight to see our friend, T. G. Denton, bookkeeper for Day Bros.

The streets were practically deserted. We saw three men coming and two going. Nobody shot at us, and we saw nothing suspicious. We had heard that people do not walk the streets much at night. The blooded in Breathitt county cries out for vengeance. Terrible be the retribution. "Vengeance is mine, I will repay saith the Lord."

Oh, why will men persist in their murderous way? Turn! Turn! Why will ye die?

We left at 6 o'clock Thursday morning. Our first stop was at Stanton.

Wm. Conner aged about 65 years, died at his home near Stanton on Tuesday, Sept. 16, 1902, of pneumonia. A wife survives him. He is kinsman of Dick Conner, of Spencer.

The corn of Powell is fully up to the average.

J. S. Ewen and Ab Hall sold to Cas Prewitt, of Montgomery, some nice feeders, about 1100 lbs., at 4c. Wm. Bowen also sold him.

Hogs are scarce, few sales. Mrs. Tom Conlee, of North Fork, is seriously ill of typhoid fever.

Clay Turner and T. C. Quisenberry, of Montgomery, were in the county on Wednesday and Thursday looking for cattle. Q said that at Ford, Ky., was the "largest drying plant in the world." W. h-e-w!

In the jail there are now two prisoners—Charles Holmes, for robbing, and Tom Cockrell of Breathitt, for killing Ben Hargis. Cockrell has been here since May 1. We spent several minutes with him, but have no sensational story to tell. Our talk was for him.

At present there are only five announced candidates for Circuit Clerks: A. H. Norton, W. T. Stringer, V. C. Martin, H. T. Derickson, and M. R. Lyle, with other precincts to hear from.

On Thursday marriage license was issued to Sanford Hall and Mrs. Carrie Townsend.

On Tuesday morning at Tea Table Shoals near Mouth of Walker's Creek in Lee county David Lucas and Chas. Hibbins became involved in a quarrel over 14 bushels of corn. Lucas shot Hibbins with a shot gun, killing him instantly.

Agals we thank the officials of the L. & E. for the attractive landscape gardening at Natural Bridge. We heard Rev. B. A. Jenkins preach in Winchester at night, and reached home at 9:47.

THE SCRIBBLER
Wise and Otherwise—Mostly Otherwise
Digged, Borrowed, Stolen

An interesting story is being told of "Jim" Younger, according to the Kansas City Journal. It is said that when the bandit was sick in the Minnesota penitentiary a daughter of one of the deputy wardens prepared delicacies for him. Jim fell in love with her and when he was paroled secured her consent to marry him. Her parents at first objected but finally yielded. When "Jim" went to get a license, however, the official to whom he applied told him that in the eyes of the law he was a dead man, and that he couldn't issue a license to a corpse. Jim can be legally restored to life only by a pardon, and past experience teaches him that this is a very difficult thing to get. It looks, therefore, as he and his sweetheart will have to forego the felicities of matrimony. A southern Missouri paper inquires what would be done with a man who should kill Younger. "In the eyes of the law he is dead," it reasons. "It would be absurd to try a man for killing another man who is already dead."

Perhaps the murderer would be technically a ghoul and would be prosecuted for grave robbery. The fine logic of the law leads to strange conclusions sometimes.

Some of the "400" who have summer cottages at Pewee Valley are inclined to fight the location of the Confederate Home at that place, doubting the wisdom of having an occasional sick and feeble "veteran in their midst." Fighting the Home is in all likelihood all the fighting they ever did and they ought to be ashamed of that.

The Frenchman who invented the wax bullet to be used in dueling has performed a real service for the belligerent gentry of the gay capital. There is no real danger of being killed in a Parisian duel any more, but occasionally an awkward fighter would punch a hole in his antagonist's dress suit. All this is now obviated, and honor can be maintained by shooting for points with chewing gum without any danger to life or wear and tear to clothes.

"Judging from his selections, I should say your husband must be something of a re-phallicite," said Mrs. B, as they sat down in a corner of the magnificent library to tea.

"Oh, no," her hostess replied. "Josiah always votes the straight Republican ticket, although he did used to be a Democrat before he got into the manufacturing business and seen how bad it would be for the country to cut down the tariff."

In dying suddenly after a stroke of vertigo, Jacob Kuntzman, a district leader of New York democracy, gave a strange example of "the ruling passion strong in death." Kuntzman was returning home after having bailed out a constituent accused of some petty offense when he was stricken. It seems that he had arranged a picnic for his political followers to take place Monday and the band hired for the occasion determined to give the leader a serenade. As the unconscious form of the dying politician was borne toward the house in an ambulance the band, believing him to be in the house, played a lively air at the doorstep. Kuntzman regained consciousness inside and asked that "the boys" be admitted to the last audience. "I am dying," he said as they gathered around him, "but before I go, I want to say to you that I thank you for the loyalty you have shown me. You call win without me, but I'd like to be in the final." In a few more hours he was dead.

Consumption Threatened.
C. Unger, 212 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since."

Forest fires are still raging in the Northwest and several towns are threatened.

Beware of the Knife.
No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals.

Meat to Be Meant.
At a meeting held in Chicago of the parties to the proposed packers' combine, it was decided that the merger should go into effect September 27. The only obstacle in the way has been the price demanded for the stock of Swift & Co. and Schwarzhild & Sulzberger. This, it is said, has been arranged. It is stated that there was never any fear from the threat of the removal of the tariff on Canadian meats.

Democratic State Primary.
The question is up to the people. What would it cost to hold a State Primary? It would not exclude any man worth killing or worthy the suffrage of the people.

WHAT IT WILL COST.

Much of the wide divergence of statement as to the cost of holding a democratic state primary is attributable to the different standpoints from which the subject at issue is viewed. Those who oppose a primary are inclined to place the cost so high that it will become prohibitive; those in favor of a primary of course reduce their figures to a minimum—the outcome being an irreconcilable difference of results. There ought not to be any difficulty in arriving at the real facts, and the following tables, carefully compiled and closely reviewed, will be found as nearly correct as is possible with any estimate.

Four officers of election in 1,900
products at $1 each . . . $7,600
Ballots, stencils, pads, notices, etc., 2,250
Transportation of ballot-boxes and incidentals . . . 1,000
Rent of rooms . . . 1,000
Total . . . $11,850

But The Times has all along contended, and still contends, that there are enough democrats in every county in the state to hold the election free of charge. If this is correct, the item of $7,600 for officers of election is eliminated, and the total is reduced to $4,250.

There are nine state officers to be nominated and for these there are already thirty announced candidates, with the probability of the total footing up to forty before the entries are closed. However, should no more aspirants declare themselves in the cost would be

To Each Candidate.
Including election officers . . . $95
Excluding . . . 145
Of course a larger number of candidates will reduce these costs proportionally.

On the whole, there is scarcely a candidate for any state office who will not spend more than either the minimum or the maximum of these estimates, during the session of a state convention.

The Times believes these figures are absolutely correct. They show that a primary election can be held, at the outside, for $395 per candidate. Eliminating the cost of election-officers, and calculating upon an increased number of aspirants over those at present announced, and the expense will foot up scarcely more than $100 per candidate.

And the office-seeker who declines to put up $395—the maximum entry fee—for a chance at a big state office, is not greatly enamored of his own chances of winning.—The Glasgow Times.
